Melean County. Prosperts - The Impeachment Project-A" Katyilit" Story. Correspondence of the Louisville Democral, SACRAMENTO, KY., May, 1868.

Messer. Editors: Having notbeed in the columns of your paper letters from different sections of the "Vineyard of Uncle Sam," in regard to the prospect of a crop, and being moved by the retrigerant zephyrs of a beautiful May moruting. I thought berhaps it would not be amiss to enlist our county in the line of prespective reputs.

For the last mouth or so, we have had nothing but rain, rain; which has almost caused the heart of the planter to shrink! But, within the last few days, the Illuminator of the universe seems to have thrown side the darkening vail, and is now, with the refulgent rays of his countenance, visting our beautiful and verdant fields, whilet seem to already have donned a new robe. And, by the way, SACRAMENTO, KY., May, 1868.

Is looking tolerably well. Some of the farues have run around their first planting it second time. There is some of the land ynuplanted, owing to the continued wet weather. Our chances for WHEAT WHEAT

Are rather "slim." I notice in your paper of the 20th ult. a piece from the Lebanon Flarion, stating that the "wheat crop in the Green river country was never more flathering." The reporter must have certainly overlooked this section. However, we still foster the hope that our sister counties may have an abundant yield, and we, by making raffor choming cord wood may earn our bisenit

In this part of the country was never more promising, though some little fears of the rust are entertained by some, as slight indi-eations have been observed in places. The

TOBACCO Crop here Is very fuir, indeed. Most of the farmers aim at large crops. They are pretty well done "setting out." And as for FRUIT

FRUIT
We are anticipating a rich yield. Notwill standing the heavy frosts, the frees have a ready began to droop their heads, and grounder their exuberant burdens. It seen that this is "boust year." They are foun almost by hundreds, crawling about upon the burshor. We are all "settling up as-chewing," but are a little surprised at the faiture of the Illegal attempt to impose the President, believing, as we did, that our "leaders" had lost their glasses and couldn't see the constitution, and, by a mutual indenture, had agreed to pocket conscience and "go it blind." It does appear to us folks away down here in the woods that such meoustitutional, tillegal, unelvilized and sickening acts are enough to manseate the stomach of a brass monkey. It reminds one of old Annt Peggy McFilm, an old Irish lady, who, in company with her husband, left the refreshing breezes of "Erin's Green isle" and emigrated to this country just at that season of the year when the weary farmer is made to inhate the nightly alf with se much pleasure, and to fully enjoy the benefit of "Nature's sweet restorer, balmy sleep," Cutused by the meessant piping of the lively PHILITICALLY,

The written examinations, in this school, will follow the oral, this year.

Female High School.—The written examinations of the classes of this school occupied the whole of last week.

One hundred and twenty-one young ladles were examined by classes, as follows: Seniar vlass, twenty-two (one was absent on acrount of ill health, making twenty-three in the class); junior class, twenty-titree; second year class, thirty-live; first year class, forty-one. The result, of course, in regard to the three lower classes, will not be made known until after the regular commencement exercises on the last Thursday in June.

The Sentor class passed their examination with credit to themselves mad the schood.

The public ond examination of this schood will occur on Friday, the 12th of Jame.

The parents and friends of the pupils, the trustees, and all friends of education, are invited to attend.
